

Best Practices:

In 2018-19, College of Fine Art has focused its priority on the various academic activities. Especially Academic workshops of National and Institute level were conducted in the college. Academic workshop addresses the contemporary art practice and enable the students get acquainted with the practice of visual culture. College of Fine Arts main Mantra is to inculcate the best artistic practice, bring in a fine blend of tradition with its contemporary practice.

Art activities focussing on the student centric programs have been pivotal thing in College of Fine Art. Inviting scholarly art practitioners from reputed institutes, professionals will help the academic notions of the institute. Workshops organized in the institute blend the traditional method of teaching and learning with modernist and contemporary visions. A workshop on traditional miniature art form had revealed the scope of line and its metamorphosis in contemporary context.

Expanding art practice and viewing art works and design art works brings a new visual association. An International Design Art Show of Faculty of Fine Art college Warsaw, Poland, which was held in institute's galleries connected to the mode of art practice in other part of the world. Faculty and Students get an opportunity to interact with design artist.

Art connectivity through the organizing periodical study trips. Student of Art need to interact with the Visual Art practices in a larger scale. Students visit to International exhibition like Kochi Muziris Biennale, brings a large amount of new artistic practice among the students. There is also a student Biennale, where College of Fine Arts Students are also participated. Interaction with art practitioners, who are in helm of their currier, will guide the student fraternity. The trends in the contemporary art world will be understood by the students, when they get exposure to such art exhibitions.

Annual exhibition of the students is a very important aspect of the visual arts education in CFA. Annual exhibition showcase their selected art works, here for the first time students works are opened to public. There will be interaction with artists, art lovers and gallery experts. Students are judged by their art works. Some selected students get opportunity to showcase their art works in international art institutes like alliance Frances. Even exhibition will be taken to France also.

The professional catalogue of the exhibition is printed with interested standard. Thus will further provides a record for each one if final year students.

Annual Show also provides an opportunity to interact with industry personality. This will help in getting direct contact and students get invitations to work in industry.

The faculty members are encouraged to participate in national and international art exhibitions and workshops. This will provide a large scope for gaining contemporary knowledge to the faculty.